THE COMET.

And what would happen to the land.
And how would look the acs.
If in the bearded devil's path.
Our earth should chance to be?
Full hot and high the sea would boll.
Full red the forests gleam.
Methought I saw and heard it all.
In a dyspeptic dream? saw a tutor take his tube

I saw the scalding pitch roll down.
The crackling, swenting pines.
And streams of smoke, like waterspouts,
Burst through the rumbling mines;
I asked the firemen why they made.
Such noise about the town;
They answered not—but all the while.
The brakes went up and down.

I saw the or that browsed the grass Writhe in the blistering rays. The herbage in his shrinking jaws Was all a fory blaze;
I saw huge fishes, boiled to rags. Bob throughts of supper crossed moul!

Spare, spare, oh, spare thine evening meal, And sweet shall be thy sleep.
